

Operations Overview

The left column begins with the operating mandate and explains how the insurance fund is administered before describing the sources available for funding when ordinary assessments cannot cover the shortfall. The final left paragraph completes its own argument.

The right column begins an independent policy section and explains how investments must remain available before describing the limits placed on borrowing when extraordinary liquidity support is necessary. The final right paragraph completes a separate argument.