

Parallel Narrative Report

The first left paragraph introduces operating policy
The left discussion continues through its second line
The left discussion closes its opening paragraph here

Operating policy continued

A second left paragraph describes the claims process
Its left explanation remains independent and complete
The second left paragraph ends before the next section

The final left section explains annual assessments
Each left sentence belongs to the operating narrative
Both columns finish without becoming table records

The first right paragraph introduces funding policy
The right discussion continues through its second line
The right discussion closes its opening paragraph here

A second right paragraph describes liquidity sources
Its right explanation remains independent and complete
The second right paragraph ends before the next section

Liquidity policy continued

The final right section explains emergency borrowing
Each right sentence belongs to the funding narrative
Both policy discussions finish on their own terms